YOUR ANNOUNCEMENT POST (COPY AND PASTE)

> Some news I'm excited about: I've partnered with Signature Branding & Marketing as a Signature Ambassador.
>
> I connect small businesses with their communities and with each other, so they can showcase and scale. Showing up well starts with how you look. These are my own Signature images, and I want every business owner I work with to have the same thing: a professional presence that looks like who you really are.

HOW TO ROLL IT OUT

- Day 1: Signature posts your announcement card and carousel and tags you. Share both to your story with a link sticker to your page.
- Within 24 hours: post your own announcement (caption above) with the card plus 2–3 of your favorite Signature images in different looks.
- Every week after: add your link to any post where someone compliments your photos. That's your best opening.
